

Portfields Post

What a fun, and sugar-filled, day of Portfields Bake Off. Along with the pupil leaders, I had the unenviable job of taste testing the finalists from each of the 25 classes across the school. As you can imagine, this was not an easy task... but someone had to do it. A huge thank you to all the families who took part in the cake competition and everyone who purchased a cake at the end of the day. We are pleased to say we raised an astonishing £950

This week we also had the final round of the Y3/4 girls football competition, with the girls winning 2 and drawing 1. We're delighted to announce they made it through to the finals night after half term. Well done to the whole team.

We also welcomed our EYFS families for their final learning journal session of the year, where the children showed off everything they have been learning this year. Our Year 4 children visited the Synagogue and across the school we had forest school sessions, orienteering lessons and a planned visit from the fire brigade. An extremely busy week!

I hope you have a lovely half term break and I look forward to welcoming your all back on Monday 2nd June.

Mrs Folkard.
